Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

We note from the Greenwood Commonwealth that Leflore County has been approved as a Food Stamp area and that the checking of the rolls will begin about December 1st. The Commonwealth states that the plan should be in full opration in that area about the first of the year.

The Commonwealth also highly commends the supervisors and city commissioners for cooperating with the Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the plan. It should be noted here that the President of the Greenwood Chamber of Commerce is Mr. Ellett Lawrence, former Grenadian.

Yalobusha County is getting ready to adopt the stamp plan; Tallahatchie is much interested; it is therefore to be hoped that Grenada County will line up" so that it can be included with them.

Stolen for The Rebel: Eve suspected Adam of unfaithfulness, so she counted his ribs every night.

Another steal from the same place: A reporter asked a visiting Frenchman why he was visiting in America, to which the Frenchman replied, "To see the famous Mrs. Beech who had so many sons in the U. S. Army."

And now they are saying that the future babies of America will be better babies because their fathers are registered. Stolen from the McComb Enterprise.

Overton Pearson is looking mighty well, and Sax Wier says the reason is that he eats so many fine red apples.

LOST: Morrison Thomas.

Grenada has quite a martial appearance with so many soldiers in and about town.

It looks like the damn dam business has quieted down. Othery things to think about, for example the World War to which this nation is getting closer and closer.

Nobody killed at Oxberry though several got shot on oil drum corn on Saturday and Sunday.

Poor ducks, and poor hunters if Bob Hall catches them with any of those squeelers.

If those deer hunters killed any deer, they did not prove it by bringing me any venison.

Forgotten last week what Cascilla was thankful for. Cascilla was thankful for the rain, so that they no longer have to haul water seven miles from the valley.

Grenada, Tallahatchie and Yalobusha counties would form an ideal Food Stamp distribution area. Carroll and Montgomery and Holmes could "buddy up".

We forgot to welcome Editor Seay, now running The Winona Times, to North Mississippi. Welcome, brother.

Everett Cock must have sold a small shoat, won two dollars in a dice or a poker game, cashed a bond, or collected some interest, for he renewed recently, and will make a large following of Water Valley borrowers happy for another year.

Maybe the county official can siphon out that sewage from their sub-level toilets. Just a helpful suggestion.

Dear Santa: please bring me a wife. Greek Rice.

We publish just three more issues before Christmas. Better give them a lot of publicity those three weeks!

Suppose Grenada, like many county seats, depended entirely upon crops in its immediate trade territory. After pondering that, look about you and see how Grenada is blessed with industries and other establishments that bring in new money.

Wonder how Jimmie McClintock is getting on, and if he is keeping out of derilment, in Jackson?

They say the Gold Coast has opened.

All of his friends, and the friends of the family, are concerned over the very serious illness of the venerable Mr. Sam C. Mims Sr., now near death in his home on Snider Street.

There is something sentimental, or touching, or something about this circumstance: Corporal W. W. Whitaker, Jr., U. S. Army, was born while Regimental Sergeant Major W. W. Whitaker, sr., U. S. Army, was in France.

JOHN POE DEAD

Mr. John Poe, 67 years of age, died at his home in Futheyville, Thursday, November 21, 1940, after a long illness. He was buried near his old home in Calhoun County.

Further details are lacking.

Mrs. Corinne Moss Died Here Monday

Mrs. Corinne Moss, widow of the late Charles J. Moss, and mother of Mrs. J. H. Neely, of Grenada, died in the local hospital Monday, November 25, 1940. She had been ill a long time in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neely.

She was a native of this state, and was born July 25, 1876. She became the wife of Mr. Charles Joseph Moss in Grenada and this couple lived in Grenada where they reared a fine family. Her husband preceded her to the grave in 1910. She was a member of the Methodist Church for many years. During her active years, the duties to her home and family occupied her greatest attention.

Funeral services were conducted in the Neely home on College Street by Rev. C. S. Liles, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church Tuesday afternoon. Following this service, the body of this estimable lady was carried to Odd Fellows Cemetery and intered.

Honorary pallbearers were Messrs. Will Salmon, Roy Doak, John Keeton, and Claud Perry and Doctors Sharp and Clanton. Active pallbearers were Messrs. O. L. Kimbrough, Stanley Brown, Ernest Pen, Walter Doty, Eli Whitaker and Jay Gore.

Two sons, Mr. Charles Moss, of Los Angeles, California, and Clyde Moss, of Oteen, N. C.; three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Neely, of Grenada, Mrs. L. B. Sohn, of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. E. F. J. Hamlyn, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; one sister, Mrs. Hattie Lewis, of Memphis; five grand children and one great grand child survive.

The Grenada County Weekly joins other friends of the deceased and of the family in extending condolence to the bereaved ones.

History of All Saints Church By WPA Writer

The following is the history of the All Saints Episcopal Church in Grenada, and was prepared by WPA investigators and writers:

Establishment of the Episcopal Church in Grenada one hundred years ago is narrated in the recently issued WPA inventory of the Episcopal church in Mississippi, according to an announcement by Roland Wall, State Admintrator. Founded in 1840 by the Rev. Andrew Matthews, only 4 years after the incorporation of the town, and known variously through the years as St. Paul's, Grace, and now All Saints', the Grenada Episcopal Church thus takes rank as one of the oldest in this section.

The Rev. Mr. Matthews, founder of the church, was a missionary, living at Hernando, and established several churches in north and central Mississippi. The Grenada Church was admitted to the Episcopal Diocese of Mississippi by the Convention of 1840. Lay delegates from Grenada to the 1840 Convention were James A. Girault and Nathaniel Howard, remembered as men of importance in the years of early settlement here. Services were later held by visiting clergymen, and, after 1850, by the Rev. William Mercer Green, first Bishop of the State, who usually made at least one annual visit. There seems to have been no Episcopal Church building in these early days, and services were reported as held in the Presbyterian or Methodist buildings.

The War Between the States hampered Episcopal Church life in Grenada, but in 1870 the Church was reorganized as Grace Church, having previously been called St. Paul's. A lot was bought, and was begun and was in use by 1871. The Rev. David Starke Goodloe, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, was in charge here at that time. In 1873, the name of the church was again changed, to All Saints', as it is known today, and the completed church was consecrated by Bishop Green, January 16. There were fifty-five communicants in 1875, and in the same year it was reported that "a handsome gothic cottage" was completed as a rectory for the Rev. Stephen Herbert Green, youngest son of the Bishop, rector at the time.

For a brief period the Rev. Mister Green conducted a parocial school for sixty boys and girls of Grenada.

The present gothic church building of brick, with its lofty steeple and bell was officially opened in 1890, by the Rt. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, the second Bishop of Mississippi.

The Rev. Charles Liles is the present rector, and the parish reported 103 communicants.

Other clergymen who have served All Saints' in addition to those mentioned are: the Rev. Messrs. Samuel J. Howard, John Charles Adams, Alexander F. Samuels, William C. McCracken, Aaron K. Hall, Robert H. Neide, Lawson H. Snell, Ireaneus Trout, Martin Damer, Charles Hinton, W. S. Holmes, Thomas W. Jones, Edward A. DeMiller, Robert W. Emerson, John Harvey Boosey and Lucien Malone.

Grenada Company Inducted Into Federal Service

(by Corporal Wm. W. Whitaker Jr)

When First Sargent Upton Costilow sounded his whistle Monday morning and gave orders to "fall in" the Headquarters Battery, First Batallion, of the 114th Field Artillery ceased to be part of the Mississippi National Guards and became a part of the United States Army.

Commanded by Captain James E. Shaw, Jr., First Lieutenant J. M. McCormick and Second Lieutenant E. S. Davis as the Commissioned officers, the battery is composed of seventy-nine enlisted men, young men of Grenada and vicinity who are willing to give up a year of their civilian life in order that they may aid in the defense of America.

The Headquarters Battery, has for the past ten years been stationed at Grenada as the city's unit of the Mississippi National Guard and, under the mobilization order issued last week by the President, the battery Monday became a part of the United States Army and begins a year's tour of active duty.

Monday morning, soon after the "fall in" signal, the soldiers were busily engaged policing the camp area and the sleeping quarters. The new recruits were issued uniforms and began to learn the fundamentals in soldiering.

The organization will leave Grenada enroute to Fort Blanding, Florida, about 45 miles from Jacksonville, in the early part of December. Plans are being made to depart December 5th, however, the order may be changed.

The Godess of Rain, if there be such a creature, has showered her blessings upon us this week and wet the ground to such an extent that it made intensive drilling impractical. However, as you may know, the army can find something to occupy every available minute of a soldier's time—for your personal information, you don't spend it on the place that wears out the seat of your britches. During this wet spell we have been instructed on hygiene, first aid and various and sundry other things that have to put in practice while we eat off of the tax payers.

•••

The entire battery has read the Articles of War. The rules and discipline and courtesy, if followed, will reap a golden reward for both the officer and enlisted men. If broken the penalty grows with the seriousness of the art. For a minor offense it may be extra duty, or a fine or imprisonment. Some crimes call for the capital punishment, the firing squad.

•••

We have our meals at the Barwin Hotel and the Star Cafe. Mrs. Vassar Dubard, who helps during meal time, remarked to Lieutenant Davis that she had never seen such a well behaved set of men in her life. That quite flattered us but we don't believe that she would have said that if she did not mean it. Not braging but we do have a higher grade personnel than is found around most army posts. Our officers have not and will not tolerate mis-conduct and the men have reconciled themseleves to that fact.

•••

"Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise"—so goes an old adage. The army does not turn out many wealthy soldiers, of course, there are exceptions to all rules. Some can stay in the army all their life and never become wise! But as you can readily see from the regularity of the meals and sleeping hours that the army will develop healthy bodies for the men. The average American youth leads a very soft life and consequently is soft and flabby. Soft life with overindulgence and dissipation has spelled runination to more than one nation. Uncle Sam is preparing to harden his great potential man-power along with the harnessing of production facilities. He does not intend to sit idly by and suffer this tragedy.

Mrs. W. A. Thompson Died Sunday, Buried Monday

Mrs. W. A. Thompson, whose maiden name was Miss Emma Gale Weir, died in her home in Grenada Sunday morning, November 24, 1940. She was born in the "Fork" country in Beat Three of Grenada county on September 28, 1869, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Weir, her mother being a member of the Horton family.

She and Mr. W. A. (Archie) Thompson were married in 1892, and have been continuously residents of Grenada since that time. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Grenada. She was a woman of indefatiguable energy, and, even if tortured by the pangs of illness, never "gave up" until the absolute limit of human endurance had been reached. She lead a quiet, purposeful life and was known by her neighbors for her many benevolences.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon by Rev. G. E. Wiley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. E. R. Henderson, paster of the Central Baptist Church. Interment was had at Odd Fellow cemetery in Grenada.

Pallbearers were: John Mitchell, Allen Mitchell, Edgar Mitchell, Elmer Mitchell, Louie Angevine, Junior Angevine, Archie Mitchell and Eli Whitaker.

Survivors include: her husband, Mr. W. A. Thompson; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Addie Cobb, Miss Minnie Lou Thompson, and Mrs. Lamar Hall; two sons, Robert H. Thompson and Thomas W. Thompson; two sisters, Mesdames Sarah Kincaid and Mattie Kincaid, both of Oklahoma; one brother, T. C. Weir, of Austin, Texas; and eight grandchildren and one great grand-child.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our sympathy.

REGULAR, NOW

Mr. Harry Greenfield, who has worked for the GCW a few days at the time for the past month or so, is now a regular employee. Mr. Greenfield is too well known in Grenada to need any introduction as he was worked as a printer in Grenada ever since the World War.

Whyte Whitaker, Jr., now a Corporal in Uncle Sam's Army, will of necessity not be with us for at least a year. However, he will continue his column from Camp Blanding, Florida, and this column will bear down upon news from "the front."

Mr. Greenfield asks that all his friends consult him about their job printing orders before placing them, as well as about their advertising problems.

I pity the poor book buyers. I have just one to buy books for now, but it is a wonder I remained solvent with school books, ever changing, to buy for four kids.

Jim Lamb Died Here Last Friday

Jim Lamb, life-long citizen of Grenada died in Grenada Hospital Friday morning at 6 o'clock, November 22, 1940, and was buried Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Lamb was 70 years of age, and a native of this county, having been born near Graysport. An electrician by trade, he spent a few years of his early life in the Delta of Mississippi and in Louisiana and Arkansas, but spent most of his life right here in Grenada. For the past fifteen years, he has sold tickets to the colored customers at Grenada Theater. He was never married.

Jim was always a "great hand" with boys and young men, and by all of them, both of the present generation of boys and of the generation now in midde age, he was always known as "Pap" Lamb. While some men exercise their influence upon younger men for the worse, Jim Lamb always exercised his influence for good. Only the Great Recorder above knows what boys and how many boys Jim Lamb has set upon the right road of sobriety and honor. Certainly the number is large. Parents never hesitated to let "sonny boy" go along, if they knew that "Pap" Lamb was to be along also.

One of his greatest virtues was that of appreciation. Often ill in bed these few years, Jim was always the recipient of many attentions from the people of Grenada. His appreciation for these kindnesses was well-known, for he never failed to publish a Card of Thanks and never failed by word of mouth to express his appreciation. Another virtue was that of charity, named by the Great Book, as the "greatest of these". His means, always limited, were always used to help someone less fortunate than himself.

Rev. C. S. Liles, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church of which the deceased was a member, conducted the funeral services at Garner Brothers' Funeral Home, as well as the committal at the grave in Odd Fellows cemetery. Six friends, Messrs. Henry Ray, Sr., Spivey Kent, Jim Weed, Fisher Oltenberg, Joe Williams, Sr., and Harry Greenfield, whom Mr. Lamb had selected several years before his death, served as pallbearers. One person attending the ceremonies stated that there had seldom, if ever, been a more representative group of people attending a funeral in Grenada: larger, of course, but not more representative of the permanent citizenship of Grenada.

Only immediate survivors are one brother, George Lamb, of Grenada, and Mrs. Katherine Pomeoy, a daughter of Mr. Lamb's only sister, who lives in Memphis.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our deepest sympathy.

GET TOGETHER MEETING

The managers of the Grenada Coca-Cola Bottling Co., and the City Ice and Coal Co., were hosts to the employees and their wives at an informal get together meeting in the stock room of the new Coca-Cola plant Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

Reversing the usual order of procedure, the husbands planned and prepared the dinner which consisted of oysters, fish, French fried potatoes, rolls and coffee. Mrs. Elliott contributed the dessert—a delicious cocoanut cake.

The colored employees entertained with speeches and dancing.

Mr. Charles Ferrell climaxed the evening's pleasure with a moving picture depicting the life of a Coca-Cola salesman and his place in the life of his community.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt were special guests at the party and voiced a suggestion that the "boys" make this meeting an annual affair.

Those attending the meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Pace, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Cozart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferrell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Honeycutt, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mann, Mr. Harmon Marshall.

LEGION TO HONOR NEW SOLDIERS WITH DANCE

Grenada Post No. 35, (American Legion, will honor the members of the home company, soon to leave for Camp Blanding, Florida, with a dance tomorrow (Friday) night. Eddie Hale's ten-piece orchestra will furnish the music. The place, Community House. The time, 10 p. m.

Dancers, other than the soldiers, will be charged $1.00; spectators 25 cents.

Businessmen of this city have contributed approximately forty-five dollars toward the expenses. All the money above expenses will be donated to the Mess Fund of the company.

GENERAL GRAYSON WARNS AGAINST INTERFERENCE WITH DRAFT LAW

General Grayson, State Director of Selective Service, announced today that certain delinquencies and possible violations of law are being reported by Local Boards over the State. He stated emphatically that these will be vigorously dealt with. Such delinquencies are primarily in failure to register; unwarranted delay in returning questionnaires; and wilful inaccurates or misrepresentations in questionnaires and requests for deferment. Regulations specify that, unless the Local Board grants an extension of time, the registrant shall be allowed five days in which to return his questionnaire. The five days are counted as beginning on the day after mailing.

General Grayson stated that he anticipated the continued cooperation of practically all Mississippi citizens. The penalty for those otherwise disposed is erected in the following provisions of Section 11 of the Selective Service and Training act:

"Any person charged as herein provided with the duty of carrying out any of the provisions of this Act, or the rules or regulations made or directions give thereunder, who shall knowingly fail or neglect to perform such duty, and any person charged with such duty, or having and exercising any authority under said Act, rules, regulations, or directions who shall knowingly make, or be a party to the making of any false, improper, or incorrect registration, classification, physical or mental examination, deferment, induction, enrollment, or muster, and any person who shall knowingly make, or be a party to the making of, any false statement or certificate as to the fitness or unfitness or liability or nonliability of himself or any other person for service under the provisions of this Act, or rules, regulations, or directions made purusant thereto, or who otherwise evades registration or service in the land or naval forces or any of the requirements of this Act, or who knowingly counsels, aids, or abets another to evade registration or service in the land or naval forces or any of the requirements of this Act, or of said rules, regulations, or directions, or who in any manner shall knowingly fail or neglect to perform any duty required of him under or in the execution of this Act, or rules or regulations made pursuant to this Act, or any person or persons who shall knowingly hinder or interfere in any way by force or violence with the administration of this Act or the rules or regulations made pursuant thereto, or conspire to do so, shall, upon conviction in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment . . . . ."

IF YOU WISH TO CONTRIBUTE

Several friends, who are not Baptists, have contriuted to our building fund. Others have stated, that they too, would like to have a part in our new church buildin. If you feel so inclined, please hand any sum from one dollar on up, to H. J. Ray or A. N. Coburn. It will be appreciated by Baptist Church.

DOES GRENADA NEED A REST ROOM?

Does Grenada need and want a Rest Room For a number of years a rest room and lounge located in the second story of the Patterson building has been maintained by the city, county and some of the business men. It has been sponsored by the Civic League and managed by a treasurer appointed by the League. Some of the oldest and most substantial business firms have withdrawn their support, those who are still helping to finance the rest room feel that every business in the city benefits and should help support it.

The League believes a rest room is very essential to the comfort and convenience of the working women of the city and the county women and children who otherwise would have no place to stay except in the stores or on the streets while the men transact their business. One lady said she always insisted on coming to Grenada to shop instead of a town nearer by, because of the convenient rest room.

The League will no longer sponsor the rest room unless it is put on a more business-like basis.

The total expense of operating is about $220.00 per year, the city and county pay $120.00; unless the business men assume their share of the expense ($100.00) the rest room will close Jan. 1st.

Mrs. J. E. Lufkin, Pres.
Mrs. C. C. Penn, Treas.

GORE SPRINGS H. D. CLUB

The Gore Springs Home Demonstration Club held its regular monthly meeting November 14 with 19 members present. The meeting was called to order by singing "God Bless America." On account of the absence of the Demonstrator, President, Mrs. F. E. Gillon, took charge. Discussions were made on landscaping the school buildings and clearing off the land which has recently been purchased for the Gore Springs cemetery. All members were asked to bring their husbands and lunch on the 28 to do the work.

Prof. Eugene McGahey was the chief speaker and discussed the kind of shrubbery needed. Then the recreation leader took charge. A reading was given. A Woman and a Mouse, by Mrs. Annie Tharpe and a contest of turkey making was given by Mrs. S. E. Gillon. Mrs. Homer Trussell gave a reading composed by Mrs. Guy Sultan, entitled "Mother Do You Know Your Daughter". A Thanksgiving feast spread on a table beautifully decorated with autumn leaves. Meeting adjourned.—By Secretary.

MRS TERRELL 86 YEARS YOUNG

Mrs. Ellis Terrell, our favorite aunt, celebrated her 86th birthday on Nov. 22, by going to Memphis to view the Christmas parade. The parade was called off until a later date, but Aunt Ellis enjoyed her trip there anyway. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Townes, Sr. and Ruth Townes, a grand daughter.

MT. NEBO NEWS

Thanksgiving was most hilariously observed here. No serious casualties, fewer drunks than usual, and they were of the sleepy, non-aggressiev type. No fines nor cost money.

Mr. Odie Cook, of California, arrived here last week and is visiting old friends and relatives. He left here when he was four years old, fifty-four years ago. He says the scenery and the people have changed quite a bit.

Jack Carter, of A. & M. accompanied by two friends spent awhile with his arents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Carter last week-end.

One big reason for wishing WGRM radio station back in Grenada is, we so much wish those good sermons. There are a good many old people here who are not able to attend church, and Grenada is far superior town to Greenwood.

Mrs. Henry Poyner, who is holding a federal job at Hardy, delighted her many friends here by spending several days with us last week.

DADDY GOES A'HUNTING

By EDITH BERRY

One day Jule's daddy went out hunting because he wanted a nice soft rabbit skin to make warm shoes for Jule's feet. The days were getting cold and Jule could not go out in his bare feet any more.

Jule's daddy climber a high mountain and he looked everywhere for a rabbit. But the rabbits must have seen him first for they were all in their little homes in the ground, cozy and safe.

Just as he was about to return home without a rabbit, he heard a growling noise behind him. And when he looked around there was the biggest old grizzly bear that you ever saw in your life. He was nearly as big as a house, daddy thought just then.

The big bear came running out from the bushes where he had been eating berries and was daddy scared! He jumped so that what do you think happened to him Well he landed upon one of the branches of the tree and right away the bear started to come up after him.

The bear was wearing a nice, black, woolly coat with long, soft fur.

Daddy remembered what he wanted the rabbit skins for so he pointed his big gun at the bear and let it go off with the loudest BANG that you ever heard. Down went the bear and daddy jumped down and took off that nice coat of his and started home. For he was awfully cold and hungry now.

Just as he was nearly down the hill he heard a funny squealing noise and saw two funny little black balls rolling down right behind him. He stopped to see what all this noise was about—and what do you think that it was? Well it was just two little baby bear cubs. As woolly as a couple of kittens and much nicer daddy thought. So he picked them up and put one of them in each of his two big pockets.

All the way ome he was wondering what he would call them and he thought that he would call them HIGH JINKS AND LOW JINKS. I think they certainly have the funniest names. If you had been daddy, what do you think that you would have called those two nice little bears.

Jule's mother made a lovely pair of nice warm shoes from the bear's coat and then a fine warm rug for him to play on all winter. And he had more fun playing with the two little bear cubs than he thought there was in all the big, wide world. And he sure wanted to grow up in a hurry so he could go hunting with daddy every year and get two more little bear friends to play with.

Our delightful night nurse, Mrs. Edith Berry, this week contributes another of the stories with which she entertains her young son, Johnnie. Do you like these stories for the little people of the county?

The Food Stamp Plan

This newspaper has had a whole lot to say in praise of the Food Stamp Plan during the past two months. To show that we are not alone in this view, we take the liberty of quoting from other newspapers.

In the Jackson Daily News recently, the noted columnist, Bruce Barton, said:

Most remarkable thing about the Department of Agriculture's food stamp plan, in some ways, is the manner in which the retail grocers of the country have policed themselves to make the thing work.

Biggest potential trouble spot in the whole setup has always been the chance that the individual grocer wouldn't obey the rules. If he'd let the relief clients spend their blue stamps for other things than the officially designated surplus commodities the entire thing would have flopped.

Right now about 100,000 grocers are participating in the plan. To date there have been fewer than 200 reports of violations. About half of these reports on investigation, turned out to be false. Most of the balance were based on simple misunderstandings. Only half a dozen were real violations, serious enough to take to court.

The North Mississippi Herald, published in Water Valley, said:

There is good reason to hope that the system of distributing surplus food commodities through the use of Food Stamps acceptable at any retail store will be set up in Yalobusha county within the next few months.

Merchants and other businessmen have already taken the lead and are doing their part to to secure the food stamp plan for this section.

Though retail business will gain by inauguration of this plan, the people who recive surplus commodities will benefit even more.

One of the objectionable features of the present system of distributing surplus commodities is that there are no adequate facilities for handling and distributing this food.

A large part of the food distributed is either perishable or semi-perishable, and as the commodity warehouses have no cold storage facilities, the food often goes to waste, is in bad condition when it is received, or must be dished out quickly and recklessly to save it becoming a total loss.

Then too, there is the inconvenience to those certified for commodity relief. Each group has a different day upon which to report. The commodities vary, not according to diet needs, but according to what is available. There are long waiting lines, and though the commodity people do the best they can in the rush and confusion there are bound to be mistakes.

All this would be eliminated under the Food Stamp Plan. No more standing in line. No more "smelly" commodities that are already fit for the garbage can.

Instead, the relief subject goes to his nearest grocery store, when he pleases and buys according to his needs and wants for that particular time. The food he gets is just as fresh, and is handled with just as much care as the choicest groceries in the store that go to the "cash" customers.

Nor will grocers attempt to foist off inferior products on relief clients, or give them bad service. Competition for the commodity business will be just as keen as for any other business because the man holding a food stamp can get his money's worth at any store in the county. The price and the quality must be right, or he will not have to make his purchase.

The Food Stamp plan will not eliminate jobs. On the contrary, it will create new jobs.

It is estimated that the surplus commodities division of the WPA puts out $40,000 worth of groceries a month in Yalobusha county. More than 8,000 people (estimating four to a family) receive these commodities. That is nearly half the people of this county. Put this vast amount of business through regular retail channels and you will see a pick-up in local trade that will make for more jobs, better wages, and general community prosperity.

Nor is this program confined to surplus food commodities. It has been announced that beginning the first of the year ,surplus clothing and other merchandise found in the dry goods store will be added to the list of commodities. It is said that $20,000 worth of dry goods a month will be given away in this county alone.

If the surplus commodity division does put out $60,000 worth of merchandise a month in this county—and this goes through local channels of trade—the total volume of retail sales will be at least fifty per cent higher than at present.

We see no reason why the Food Stamp plan cannot be initiated in this county. The cooperation of the banks, the merchants and the people generally, is assured.

No one can lose. Everyone will gain. This program must be put through.

At a meeting here Monday night, attended by merchants, bankers and officials from every section of the county, the food stamp plan was endorsed one hundred per cent.

It was one of those really enthusiastic meetings in which a large group of men, from various sections and from various walks of life were united. As a result, something tangible and concrete was accomplished.

Instead of waiting until tomorrow, or "letting George do it," petitions necesary to put Yalobusha on the eligibility list for the Food Stamp plan drawn up immediately, and just as promptly signed. Every member of the board of supervisors, every banker, every wholesale grocer and every retail grocer who was present signed the petitions. It was a healthy start, and meant just one thing: Yalobusha has gone after the food stmp plan in earnest, and you may expect to see results in a few months time.

The Carrollton Conservative, published in near-by Carrollton, said in part:

Within the past few weeks much local interest has been evidenced in obtaining the operation of the FOOD STAMP PLAN, as proposed by the Surplus Comodity Administration and the Department of Agriculture, for Carroll County.

* * * *

Under this plan many hours of time are lost by the road and bridge crew sand trucks, hauling the commodities from the regional warehouse to local points of distribution in the county.

Under the Food Stamp Plan the client will receive each week his or her allotment of negotiable stamps which may be used in ANY cooperatng grocery store in the county for the purchase of surplus commodities. An agent of the central county office will distribute the stamps to the clients in each community, thus saving them the trouble and worry of visting the central office.

* * * *

Latest estimates of the number of relief clients of this county indicate that approximately 3,000 families, representing more than 12,000 people, are receiving Federal aid in the form of commodities. According to these figures, it is evident that more than sixty per cent of the people of Carroll County are receiving some measure of aid. We believe that, by conservative estimate, at least $25,000 worth of food is being given to Carroll County people each month.

The inroads that this method of dstribution is making on the legitimate mercantile business establishments of the county cannot be estimated. It can be easily seen that our merchants are "up against the wall" and that, unless something is done to help them, many of them must close their stores. There is no way that they can compete with the free distribution of commodities supported by the limitless resources of the government.

* * * *

The merchants of the county are almost unanimously supporting the plan and we believe that the citizenry of the county, when they fully understand the workings of the program, will endorse it and urge a favorable action by the board.

From The Wayne County News, published in the extreme southeastern part of the state, says, in part:

Clarke county began the use of Federal Food Stamps last week and the plan is predicted to bring between $18,000 and $25,000 additional revenue for the merchants each month.

* * * *

The plan works like this: Those who are allowed commodities will use stamps to be traded to the grocer instead of getting their goods from the commodity warehouse. They are permitted to purchase stamps and are given others. Mr. Jones, we'll say, by illustraton, is getting commodities now. Under the stamp plan he would be permitted to purchase say $7.50 worth of orange stamps and would be given $7.50 worth of blue stamps free. He could take these stamps to his grocer and use them just like money, purchasing exactly what he needed. If Mr. Jones, however, was a WPA worker, he would not get as many free stamps as he would receive if he did not work for the WPA and receive a government check. As a WPA worker Mr. Jones could buy $7.50 orange stamps and we would get $3.75 free in blue stamps. In other words, a non-WPA worker gets just double the amount of stamps he can pay for, and the WPA worker gets $.50 worth of stamps for each $1.00 purchase.

It is not denied that commodities have seriously affected retail food trade, this plan eliminates that evil. For the stamp holder it permits him to buy the food he needs, and he is not forced to take just what is n the storehouse.

Everywhere the plan has been tried it has been declared a great success, and it would give business in Wayne county a big boost to inaugurate the plan here.

And here is another account of the plan actually in operation, carried by The Macon Beacon, in Noxubee County:

Lines are forming at the food stamp office in much the same manner as lines formed in front of the old commodity warehouses. With the plan in operation for only one week, both recipients of the stamps and merchants are expressing much enthusiasm with results.

All of the merchants throughout the county report an increase in business, particularly the country stores who were hardest hit by the issuing of commodities, for most of their trade came from the tenant farmers and low-income group.

The commodity clients seem to be enjoying buying their own food again, even though the list of items which may be purchased wth the blue stamps is necessarily limited. Most of the clients have shyed off from potatoes, and prunes, raisins, grapes, etc., old free commodity standbys. One merchant advises that he has found it impossible to keep a supply of fatback in stock.

According to the merchants the people have been most understanding about the rigid requirements, and few have expected exceptions to be made in the case of their purchases of articles not listed on the surplus list. The one article that has caused the most confusion is mixed sausage ,which cannot be purchased with the free blue stamps, as it contains beef, which is not listed as a surplus commodity.

Many of the queries and explanations of the negroes who have received the stamps are amusing. One negro man wanted to purchase sugar. When advised that the government had not placed sugar on the surplus list, he replied, "Boss, I wonder why the Governor won't let us have no sugar." One clerk explained the rules to a negro woman and added that one must be very careful in dealing with Uncle Sam. To this she replied, "You sho can't, Boss, I know cause I done dealth with him a whole lot, and I has to be real careful."

Circulars Vs. Newspaper Advertising

A merchant will make a complete coverage of mailing circulars, only to be blandly informed by several in the territory covered that they received no circular. The answer is not that the mailman has been lax. It lies in the essential failure of mailing circulars to serve the purposes intended.

Circulars come unexpected and uninvited to the average home. There is no particular aversion to the circular, it is just that it is something not looked forward to. This come partly from its irregular appearance and partly because it is entirely devoted to the sender's interests.

Contrasting, a newspaper is invited. More than that, it is paid for. The subscriber comes to the awareness that it is issued as much in his interest as in the interest of the firms who fill its advertising columns. The news columns as well as the advertising features hold his interest and the interest of every member of the family. The man of the house does not stuff it is his pocket, or leave it forgotten in the car in the barn, before the other members of the family have had their looks at it. The news, even more than the advertising, hold the paper in the house until all have read it.

The newspaper it expected. It comes on regular days. If it does not arrive on schedule, questions are asked. If Pa has mislaid the paper, Ma wants to know about it. She can't be expected to inquire about Jones' circular, however, because even if she did wish to see it, she probably had no inkling that one can come to the mail box.

The newspaper offers a regular service. You can depend upon it being issued next week and the week after. It does not require a special event or a special combination of events to bring it out. It runs a regular messenger service for all who care to use it and pay for it. It is not an excursion special.

Because of its regularity of issue and development of reader interest, the service offered by the newspaper is of definite value. This would be true even if the paper never had a line or word designed to promote legitimate community interest. It offers a definite public service.

Good Times Ahead

While we do not pose as an economist, we have sense enough to know that, if the government spends several billion dollars for defense n the next year, we in Grenada will feel the effect of it pretty soon. It's just like this: when a big fish jumps up and splashes in the middle of the pond, the ripples will extend to the edges.

But, we do not want to examine these "good times" too closely, and must not speculate too much on the ultimate consequences of these "good times," but, on the contrary, we must just take the "times" as they come, and not look any free horses in the mouth.

Wasson ups the advertising between now and Christmas and cash in. The GCW is a fine medium, if not a cheap one. It is cheap only when coverage and reader interest (the essential things) are considered. Just three more issues until Christmas.

Dan Adams must have ginned, or clipped some coupons, or something for he paid off recently.

While I am at it, I should credit Ocky Lilly with another nickel on his subscription, which puts him up another fortnight.

Millard Tilghman earnestly wanting the GCW to continue to enlighten and enliven his home and his community, brought in two gallons of his fine sorghum and it's good.

Si Jones just came by to borrow the Greenwood Commonwealth which, by the way, is a great credit to our sister city, Greenwood, being as good a newspaper as that published in any town in Mississippi—no exceptions.

All of the commodity-ipters are 100 percent for the Food Stamp Plan, and you would be too if you had to walk many miles to town, wait in line many hours, then trudge tiredly home again.

William Linley and his son, Orville, of Oxberry, were delightful callers at our emporium Friday. We have sweated many of gallons of good old sweat in the hay field together.

Just received: Vol. I, Number 2 of The Mississippi Supervisor, edited by T. P. Read in the interest of the Mississippi supervisors. It is an attractive 12 page publication filled with interesting data. Our own Prich Horton is on the Executive Committee of the association.

Well, it looks like the Grenada taxpayers are reconciled to a 25 percent raise in the General Fund levy.

This office was honored by a visit from Uncle Pink Horton, the dictator-hating patriarch of Beat Three.

Uncle Nan Staton was a business visitor from Oxberry to Grenada early last week.

We note a stirring editorial in the North Mississippi Herald about the "damn dams." That editor is raising hell about the dams.

Mc-ard politics have adjourned, disbanded, disintegrated disgustedly.

There is a persisten rumor that our hosery mill will soon be enlarged by about 100 percent, provided the City will cooperate as before.

AUXILIARIES

Presbyterian Auxiliary met at the Church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Jane Young led the devotional.

In the absence of Mrs. Gertrude Marders, program leader for the afternoon, who is ill, Mrs. Ernestine Martin presided at a very interesting program on Foreign Mission. She was ably assisted by several members who gave interesting data on the subject.

An interesting feature of the afternoon's program was the showing of sketches, portraying the mission churches in Mexico, India, China, Japan and Brazil. These lovely sketches were the hand-work of Mrs. Roger Dollarhide.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

The Woman's Missionary Union met in the following homes of members Monday afternoon.

Circle No. 1 with Mrs. Lilly Pressgrove.

Circle No. 2 with Mrs. A. N. Raylam.

Circle No. 3 Mrs. Earl Bailey.

Circle No. 4 Mrs. John Rundle.

Circle No. 5 Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr.

Mrs. E. R. Green, the president of W. M. U. met with Circle No. 5, at the home of Mrs. Perry. This meeting was a social and on this occasion quite an event, as Circle No. 5, one of the smaller circles, had accomplished most satisfactory, the collecting of a sum of money to be added to the building fund. At the beginning of the year the members of this circle were each given a small pink bag, cut to resemble a pig, into this bag went small savings and at the Monday meeting they had a "hog killing" time. The hostess provided a small hatchet and block to open the pigs on. The ladies counted $20.00 in small change, when all of the pigs had been "killed" This amount was then given to the building fund. Mrs. Green announced that next week will be the W. M. U. week of prayer for Foreign Missions.

DANCE

On Friday evening Miss Jackie Lane was hostess at a dance given at the Community House.

Beginning at ten o'clock, after the football game, the guests enjoyed dancing until late hours.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. George Garner was hostess to club members Wednesday afternoon at her lovely home. The tables were arranged in the living room and only members were present at this meeting.

In the late afternoon Mrs. Garner served a salad with Coca-Cola.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Anderson returned home on Thursday from a delightful visit in Laurence, N. C. where they were guests of Mr. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Cannon. They visited in Georgia also while on this trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Lomax and baby, also Miss Annie Fay Lomax, member of the faculty at Wiggins, were dinner guests of their grandfather, Mr. William Dillard on Thanksgiving Day. In the afternoon they, accompanied by their mother, who had visited here for a week or more, departed for their home in Greenwood.

Mrs. Nickle, Mrs. Dunlap and Mrs. Smith, of Batesville, were guests of their sister and aunt, Mrs. George Grant, last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Grant accompanied them to Batesville to spend Thanksgiving, and returned home Friday. Mrs. K. B. McCutchen and little daughter, Ann, of Charlottesville, Va., who have visited relatives in Mississippippi this past week, spent several days here with Mr. and Mrs. Grant. The guests from Virginia were niece and great niece of Mrs. Grant.

Mrs. E. R. Green and children visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Fitzgerald in Crenshaw last Saturday.

Episcopal Auxiliary canceled their meeting, planned to be held at the country home of Mrs. J. W. Jordan, because of the death of Mrs. Moss, mother of Mrs. Joe Neely, a member of All Saints Auxiliary.

Mr. Griffis Meek, student at Schreiver School at Culver, Texas, is expected home this Thursday to observe Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Meek.

Miss Ruby Lockett, of Memphis will visit her mother this Thanksgiving Day, as observed by the State of Tennessee.

Miss Eleanor Lickfold, member of the faculty at Senatobia, visited her parents here the past week-end.

Mrs. Mayfield spent last week in Starkville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Barton.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Jack Sanderson, President of American Legion Auxiliary, requests each member to bring a gift to place in the box to be sent to the Veterans Hospital at Gulfport, the gifts to be collected at next regular meeting, Dec. 2nd. These gifts are to be placed in a "gift shop", and the Veterans are to select gifts to send home to their loved ones. Suggestions are for gifts appropriate for children and ladies, such as aprons, handkerchiefs, toys, socks, etc. Please keep this in mind so that Grenada's box may be sent to Gulfport on time.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Meeting at the home of Mrs. L. D. Boone on November 20th, the members of the Fortnightly Club enjoyed one of the outstanding programs of the Fall.

In the absence of the President, Mrs. C. C. Cathey, Mrs. J. L. Townes, Jr., presided. The roll call was answered by the members telling of an interesting superstition or a slang expression used by negroes.

A most appreciated program was presented.

Miss Estelle Turner gave a review of James Street's novel "Oh Promised Land." This book review was given consisely and most delightfully by Miss Turner.

Mrs. J. D. Quinn gave a most interesting original story, illustrating with negro songs and dialect.

Mrs. Townes read a poem by J. L. Russell.

After the Treasurer's report, the club disscussed the Milk Fund and all present expressed their joy over the response made to aid children who need milk.

After the close of the program, Mrs. Boone served Coca-Cola.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Houston and children, of Montgomery, Ala., spent Saturday with their aunt, Mrs. S. A. Lacock. On Sunday Mrs. Lacock had at dinner guests, Miss Mary Lynn Houston, Mrs. J. W. Jenkins and young son, John, and his friend, Burt Tidwell, of Memphis. On Monday Mrs. Lacock entertained Mrs. Sayles Allen, of Charleston.

Mrs. Johnnie Owens, Mrs. L. L. Townes, Sr., and Mrs. Ellis Terrel spent Friday of last week in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Lilly and Mr. Pete Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Burt spent Thanksgiving afternoon in Greenwood. Mr. Perry was at home for the holidays. He resides in Jackson.

Miss Ruth Irvin, Ole Miss student spent Sunday night here with her room-mate, Miss Martha Bess Brown. Miss Irwin, whose home is in Crystal Springs, was accompanied to Grenada by her mother and brother, also a friend from Jackson. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Noble and two sons spent Thanksgiving with their sister and aunt, Mrs. Alf George and family in Greenwood.

Miss Jessie VanOsdell, member of the faculty at Holmes Junior College, Goodman, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Van Osdell during the holidays.

Miss Mildred Keller, of Monroe, La. was the charming guest of Miss Fern Pendergras last week.

Several Grenadians were in Memphis for the day, Friday of last week, however they were not in one party. Mesdames W. E. Jackson, Walter Garner, Rogers Burt, Fisher Oltenberg and M. L. Wilson.

Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith entertained their sister, Mrs. Herbert Derks and young son, John Albert, of Crystal Springs, several days last week.

Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Thrower and children spent Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Thrower's mother, Mrs. J. R. Brinker in West Point. On Sunday, the Rev. and Mrs. Thrower were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Gaston, of Starkville.

Miss Elise Lockett of Jackson, visited her mother and family last week-end. She returned to Jackson Sunday.

Shep Warner, medical student at Tulane returned to his studies on Sunday afternoon, after a visit with his parents.

Mrs. C. S. Liles, and daughter, Dorothy, accompanied their sister and aunt, Miss Betsy Shields, to Morton, for a brief visit the first of the week.

Misses Marie Blaylock, Minnie Lou Goodwin, and Tinsley Thrower, Jack Hudson, Edward Morgan, of Moorhead Junior College, came home for Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Doris Pressgrove and little son, Andrew, of Lapanto, Ark. visited their relatives here during the holidays, house guests of Mrs. Pressgrove,s brother, Mr. Juel Batson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Williams, of Ripley, Miss., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Williams on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Williams went to Jackson on Friday for a short visit, and Mr. Williams attended the Ole Miss-State game at Starkville Saturday.

"TEN LITTLE INDIANDS"—UP-TO-DATE

Ten little countries feeling very fine;
Adolf ogled Austria, and then there were nine.
Nine little countries—who would know their fate!
Neville went to Munich, and then there were eight.
Eight little countries praying hard to heaven;
Poland answered "No, sir", and then there were seven.
Seven little countries in a fearsome fix;
Hitler rescued Denmark, and then there were six.
Six little countries sitting on a hive;
Traitors in Norway, and then there were five.
Five little countries all abhorring war;
Luxembourge was easy, and then there were four.
Four little countries—one beyond the sea,
Tulip time in Holland—and then there were three.
Three little countries feeling very blue,
Belgium said, "Hell Hitler", and then there were two.
Two little countries stand by the gun;
France was disallusioned, and then there was one.
One little country standing all alone!
Bulldog vs. dachsund—who'll get the bone!

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

The GCW office was honuored on Wednesday by a visit from Mrs. Calvin S. Brown, of Oxford, and Mrs. S. A. Morrison, her hostess, of Grenada. Mrs. Brown, active in religious and civic affairs of the State, is the author of the book, "University Greys" an interesting history of that brave company "A", 11th Miss. Regiment of volunteer infantry which, in May of 1861 left the campus of the University of Mississippi and joined General Lee's army, fighting with him until the surrender. Mrs. Morrison has been named State salesman by the U. D. C. organization to distribute this book. There will be more literature concerning the book, the price, etc., next week.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Baptist Training Union will hold a county-wide meeting at the Grenada Community House on Monday, December 2nd at 2:30 p. m. lasting until about 9 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Amber J. Wilds, State Secretary and Mr. Kermit Cofer, of Water Valley, President of this district will attend. All interested in this work, all B. Y. P. U. members are urged to be present at this important meeting.

W. M. U. HOSTESS

On Tuesday evening the W. M. U. of the Baptist Church were hostess to the adult members of the church at a delightfully planned social staged at the Community House.

Mrs. Joe Brown was chairman.

Games enjoyed throughout the evening were followed by the serving of pineapple up-side-down-cake and coffee.

WINS AWARD

Miss Etoile Dubard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dubard, was one of the Mary Hardin-Baylor College students who received a gold star for one of the most attractively and originally decorated Residence Hall rooms. The awards were made for rooms showing the most ingenuity in decoration and best expression of individual personality, regardless of how little or how much was spent in decorating. The program of room decorations is a part of the Personality Development program at the college.

VISITORS HONORED

Mrs. Hubert Calhoon entertained Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at her handsome home, honoring her daughter, Mrs. Charles Calhoon, who is her guest this week.

Two tables were arranged in the living room, and interesting games of bridge were enjoyed throughout the afternoon.

Delicious grapefruit salad, toasted cheese sandwiches and coffee were served late in the afternon to the following guests: the honoree, Mrs. Calhoon and Mesdames Charles Ferrell, Joe B. Williams, O. R. Lilly, Juel Batson, Hal Sanders, Byron Hunter and Eldridge Parks.

Pecans for sale, Stuart Paper Shell. FRENCH MARKET

ROTARIANN NIGHT

At seven o'clock Tuesday evening the Grenada Rotary Club paid its annual tribute to its "Anns" in the form of a well appointed banquet at the Community House.

Orange and blue, the club colors, were conspicuous in the simple, yet effective, decorations; and Rotary symbols, artistically displayed, contributed to the setting of fellowship and good will.

After a delectable three-course dinner, patterned after a choice Thanksgiving menu and served by the Methodist Church cirle No. 4, President "Honey" Honeycutt showered praise and appreciation upon Mrs. Giles Patty, whose supervision of the cuisine was flawless in taste and precision.

The guest speaker, the Rev. Hal Martin, of Senatobia, was presented by Mr. Rundle. Mr. Martin explained the meaning of Rotary's symbol and expressed appreciation of the cooperative spirit exhibited by Rotarianns in the entire field of Rotary.

In behalf of the Rotarianns, Mrs. John Keeton graciously thanked the club for the lovely gifts presented each Ann—leather coin purses bearing the Rotary symbol and expressed the hope that each Rotariann would live long and prosperously, thereby keeping the purses filled.

The 1940 roster of the local club includes the following new members, each of whom, with his Ann, was given a warm welcome:

Mr. and Mrs. Art Quantrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dabrey, Mr. and Mrs. George Ivey Fox, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Khune, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burkley, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Clanton.—Contributed.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Ernestine Martin was hostess early this week to members of the Bridge Club of which she is a member.

The cozy apartment occupied by Mrs. Martin in her lovely home on South Street was charmingly decorated with winter greenery and potted plants. Due to illness only seven members were able to attend. They were Mesdames G. D. Ross, H. W. Baker, S. H. Horton, F. T. Gerard, R. W. Sharp, Estes Pleasants, C. H. Calhoon, the hostess and one non-member guest, Mrs. Whyte Whitaker.

At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. Martin served delectable fruit cake, salted nuts and coffee.

A group from Ole Miss, were at home over the week-end, including Misses Louise Sanderson, Dick Jones, Anna Rose Finney, Martha Bess Brown and Ethel George Nichols; Messrs. Frank Horton, Gus Gerard, Frank Marascalco, William Winter, Cliff Bailey, Don Ross, Raphael Semmes, and his guest, Miss Mary Lida Vance.

Mrs. Charles Calhoon and baby son of Jackson, are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Calhoon.

Miss Bessie Phelan Sharp, of Monroe La., visited her parents, Mayor and Mrs. R. W. Sharp during the past holidays.

CELEBRATES SECOND BIRTHDAY

GALE HOLLAND

Gale Holland celebrated his second birthday October 30th. Fourteen girls and boys were present, each one presented her with a gift. After lots of fun playing games they went to the dining room where Jack-o-Lantern and fall flowers were telling that it was Holloween. They were served brick ice cream and Coca-Cola.—Contributed.

MR. AND MRS. DOAK HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Doak motored to Memphis last week-end where they met their charming aunt, Mrs. C. C. Cross of Atlanta, who is to be their guest for some time. Enjoying the hospitality of this home this week are cousins of Mrs. Doak's, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cross, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa. On Monday Mr. J. J. Mulholland, of Atlanta, spent the day here with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Doak.

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL ANNOUNCED

The Nativity Story, a beautiful Christmas Cantata will be staged at the High School auditorium on Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, at 7:30 o'clock according to announcement made by Miss Donaldson, music and voice teacher of Grenada Schools. The program is to begin with the singing of carols. Special numbers by music and voice pupils and the Glee Club to follow. Approximately 90 pupils will take part in this delightful resentation.

The concluding number is to be Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

The program will appear in this paper on December 14th and it is suggested that you cut out the proram to take with you when you attend.

AMERICAN LEGION SPENDS $50,000 FOR SOCIAL BETTERMENT

JACKSON — During the past year, The American Legion in Mississippi spent approximately $50,000 for the social betterment of 12,690 underprivileged state children, according to a report by Dr. E. LeRoy Wilkins, of Clarksdale, Chairman of the Child Welfare Division of the organization.

Showing that the division was fighting for social betterment of all children, Dr. Wilkins cited figures which revealed that 6,632 of those receiving aid were children of non-veterans, or over half the total number.

Services rendered included subsistence, school books, food and medical care. The medical care included operations, usually appendicitis or tonsillectonies, dental care, glasses and aid to crippled children.

"Our greatest unmet need for Mississippi children at present is among the physically handicapped group," Dr. Wilkins said. "Many children have physical handicaps which can and should be corrected. They include defective tonsils, eyes, ears and undernourishment.

"This need might be met if there were more facilities for locating children in need of attention and seeing that they received care. This, of course, means more adequate medical and hospital facilities."

The record of the American Legion Social work during the past year and the needs for the future was made to Edwin Zeigler, President of the State Conference of Social Work, who is directing a united campaign to coordinate all social work in the state.

Mr. Zeigler, who is also U. S. Probation Officer, praised the Legion for its work among underprivileged children, stating that the organization had done much to curb youth delinquency.

The Child Welfare Division of the American Legion has assisted groups in every section of the state.

Two of the main efforts being made in Grenada, to help the underprivileged children are the giving of milk to the school children needing milk, and supplying Christmas gifts at the Community Tree.

LETTER TO THE OLD LADY

Dear Mrs. Whitaker:

I am spending a few days at home. I was very interested in reading an edition of The Grenada County Weekly. I can not refrain from writing and telling you how perfectly wonderful I thought the piece you wrote, "That's My Boy", was.

Being the mother of a ten-year-old and knowing the heart of a mother, the article impressed me very much. I spoke of it to so many of my friends about its sweetness. So many said such lovely things about it. I hope they will not leave them unsaid to you. You are indeed showing the brave spirit and what you said in your article has helped a lot of mothers "bear up" in their partings with their boys for this defense program.

It is the thing to do, we all agree, but no one can go at it without a sad and hurtful feeling, fearful of what the outcome may be.

I am enclosing stamps to pay for a copy of the paper. I want to save the paper.

SUPERS TO MEET

The decks are cleared for the monthly meeting of the county board of supervisors next Monday, bright early. At this time, it is not possible to say whether Hon. Dave Williams, out as he has not fully recovered from a serious illness.

RIVER WORK DELAYED

The continuous bad weather which has prevailed for the past week or so has prevented full operation on regular schedule on the channel work being done on the river by WPA forces.

COLORED: James Redmon, jr., Eddie McNeal, Thomas James Johnson, and Eugene Holmon.

DUCKS MORE PLENTIFUL

Mallard ducks are more numerous in the lakes and bayous of the western part of the county than they have been in many years, particularly along Oxberry Bayou and at Little Grassy Lake. Numerous hunters have had duck dinners lately.

What good is a nice concrete toilet if it is LOWER than the sewer line?

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

If some of your neighbors are worrying about not receiving the GCW this week, whisper in their ears that maybe they had ignored the warning about their delinquencies with the mailing list. It is against the law to send newspapers to those badly in arrears.

Shorty Smith barely escaped being put off. In fact, his name had been taken off, but he got scared, pa'd up, and we had to restore his name. He could not go home, if the GCL failed to show up.

We hope the county officials will keep the old toilets intact, to use for drinking bars, and make it against the law to use the new toilets to drink liquor in.

Somebody asked us why we did not put what Bet Horn was thankful for in the paper last week. We do not know, unless it is for being alderman. That's nothing to be thankful for.

Every newspaper says it, so we do too,even if it does no good: do your shopping early; mail your packages early. Well, THAT is off our chest.

The seriousness of the war is being brought home to many of us now that our sons are mobilized as parts of the U. S. Army.

Aint they sweet.

Johnnie Leverett is an up and coming meat merchant. They say he goes loaded to Hattiesburg almost every day, 200 miles away.

Grenada county's loss is Scobey's gain, Pete Simpson having moved to that place.

The boys now entering the army face better prospects for food, clothing and shelter than we did 23 years ago. I can not help but note the fine clothing my boy, and the other boys in the N. G. have, and can not but see that the ration allowance in higher. Unless these boys actually go to war, this experience will be very valuable to them. All of them should be on the lookout for loaded dice and marked cards.

I well remember one boy from the free state in our company. He could run the scale with a pair of dice. If he is still living, and has continued his practice, he now can make a pair of dice sit up and bark.

See where Brother E. V. Catoe, Sr., is going to be something or other in a big wedding this week. Bet he will be glad when it is over, and he can put on his bedroom slippers and take it easy again.

Timely suggestion for a useful Christmas present: the GCW for one year to some old friend or kinsperson. $1.50 in this vicinity; $2.00 e'se where.

Even money on Great Britain.

Long lines of tired, discouraged and disheveled people at the commodity warehouse, or orderly purchase of goods from established merchants. Which shall it be?

Speaking of toilets, wonder how the sewage is going to get out of the new underground toilets at the court house. The floor level of the toilet is about three feet lower than the sewer line. Guess, unless the City consents to lower the line, the county will have to employ a bucket brigade to tote the sewage off down the hill to the creek. Oh, me, such is cooperation.

Advertising in the GCW must not be very effective as we have advertised three weeks for our poet at the Pats' Hospital without result.

Remember us with your printing orders. We have been entrusted with many orders, but to keep our new man Greenfield out of devilment, we will need more than formerly. He has to eat.

Roy Doak has had to have of extra plates put on his dining table this week.

FLASH—the Italian army advanced ten miles this week—back into Italy, according to Walter Winchell.

We cut off fifty and added nearly that many new ones this week, a non-paying subscriber is like a "dead soldier", not much value to anyone. Lots of times the non-payer will lend his copy to neighbors who otherwise might become paying subscribers.

According to Banker Huffington, Grenada will not be bothered by wild geese stopping here at night, for there is not enough light to attract them.

Byron Hunter, temporary chairman and secretary, writes that there is in prospect the formation of a Hill Council, designed to promote the interest of the hill counties. There is need for such an organization, particularly in farm cotton allotments.

Running the gun a little on old S. Claus: please send me some gasoline. A. Hitler.

Mr. John Highgate, of Memphis, spent today in Grenada visiting his sister, Mrs. Gene Wright.

CHANGES IN POWER CO. ORGANIZATION

Announcement has been made that the following changes in the Mississippi Power and Light Company Sales Department has been made, as follows:

Les. M. Taylor to be General Sales Manager; John Kimball to be Sales Promoter and Advertising Manager, and Joe Powell to be Residential Sales Manager.

GRINDING ON

The local draft board is grinding out the notifications that must be sent to the potential draftees in this county at the approximate rate of 25 per day. The members of the local Advisory Board have been quite busy aiding the registrants in filling out the long, complicated questionnaire.

To date, over 300 registrants have been notified.

Messrs. T. T. Hayward, the sheriff of Grenada County, and William H. Fedric, young attorney formerly of the free state, now in Grenada, have been added to the Grenada County Advisory Board. The members of this board assist registrants in filling in their blanks.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

Lights will be turned on Grenada's Christmas decorations Saturday. The business section of Grenada promises to be more brilliantly and more artistically decorated this year than in previous years, and much earlier than last year.
